Program Description: This program designed to provide specialized training to personnel who conduct protective operations for leaders, high profile inmates, or those who may become the target of an act of terrorism. Emphasis is placed on a wide spectrum of protective operations including advances, formations, motorcade operations, arrivals and departures, live fire, site surveys and many other topics. After completing the training, students shall have the ability to operate within the many positions of protective formation. The course includes a live fire qualification, familiarization, and other shooting skills that relate to the protective operations mission. This class will conduct challenging training scenarios. Students are expected to be in good physical condition prior to attending the course. We follow U.S. State Department and Secret Service models for protection.

Instructors: Instructors assigned to work this program have all deployed to overseas locations in high threat environments. The instructors selected to work this course have worked for State Department approved contractors or the federal government.

Standards: Complete all training objectives

Each student needs to bring:
